

“Divine Light and Dhamma Light” Table of Contents

(draft)

- Introduction
 - Chapter 1 : General Views on Kanni System
 - Chapter 2 : Dhammacakkhu (Eye of Dhamma)
 - Chapter 3 : Dassana Pāragū (Seeing Beyond)
 - Chapter 4 : Yogis
-

“Divine Light and Dhamma Light”

Detailed Table of Contents

- Introduction
- Chapter One: General Views on Kanni System
 - Kanni Meditation System
 - The Source
 - Ledi Sayadaw and Letpan Sayadaw
 - Kanni Sayadaw U Sobhitā (1880–1967)
 - Mye-zin Sayadaw U Sobhita (1920–2006)
 - General View on Practice
 - Mye-zin Sayadaw
 - Sayā U Htay Hlaing

- The Practice
 - a.Development of Samādhi
 - b.Development of Insight
- Samatha–Vipassanā System of Kanni Sayadaw
 - On Samatha (Part One)
 - On Samatha (Part Two)
- On Vipassanā
 - Three Ways of Contemplation
 - Seeing Aniccas in Five Ways
- Chapter Two: Dhammacakkhu (Eye of Dhamma)
 - How to Cultivate and Use the Paṭibhāga Nimitta?
 - The Way of Sending the Nimitta (Back and Forth)
- Instructional Dhamma on Practice
 - Preliminary Duties
 - Asking Forgiveness
 - Offering Mind and Body to the Buddhas
- First Development: Recollection of the Buddha, etc.
- Breath Meditation (Counting Method)
 - Beginning and Ending the Sitting
- Exercising the Samādhi Nimitta
 - Sending the Light Sign Within One’s Room
 - Sending the Light Within the Monastery and Outside It
 - From One Mile to Within Seven Miles
 - Visiting Pagodas Inside Burma

- Visiting Pagodas in India and Sri Lanka (Including the Culāmaṇi Cetiya)
- Passing Through the Face and Ears
- Cutting the Whole Body with Light
- Calming the Mind
 - Insight in Gist
 - Note by Ven. U. Mandala
- Chapter Three: Dassana Pāragū (Seeing Beyond)
 - Instructional Dhamma Talks on Ānāpāna Samādhī
 - Fifteen Qualities of a Practising Yogi
 - Five Qualities for Realisation
 - Good Life and Good Time
 - Offering Which the Buddha Prefers
 - Don't Pack Things Which Must Be Left Behind
 - Bodhisatta and the Human Hell
 - Noble Beings Fear Heaven
 - Even Though Looking After, Not Safe
 - A Place to Overcome Weariness
 - Five Unsure Things
 - The Story of Yogi U Taw Mounḡ
 - Sabbathaka Kamatthana: The Meditations of Many Benefits
 - On Recollection of the Buddha
 - Things to be Careful of in Buddhānussati
 - Recollection And Mind States

- Meditation on Good-Will
 - How To Spread Mettā
 - Spreading Mettā to the 10 Directions
 - Spreading Compassion Cures Illness
- Recollection of Death
 - The Way of Practice Which the Buddha Prefers
- Ānāpānasati – Mindfulness of Breathing
- The First Tetrad of Ānāpānasati
 - Part One: “First is Stable Sati”
 - No Need to Give Up Life in Practice
 - The Way of Practice
 - The Kanni Method of Counting
 - The Practical Method of Counting
 - Things to Be Aware of During Counting
 - Guarding the Path Factors
 - Becoming a Good Worldling
 - Talking about the Practice
 - Four Persons
 - Three Kinds of Signs
 - Insights from the Abhidhammattha Sangaha
 - "With Lightness and Agility"
 - Part Two: “Second, Knowing Long and Short Breaths”
 - Things to Know Before the Practice
 - The Way of Sending the Sign (First Lesson)

- Examples of What to Be Careful Of
- Five Examples of Balanced Effort
- Three Kinds of Sitting
- Final Note from Sayadaw:
- Three Aspects of the Mind (Ākāra)
- Developing with Three Ways of Contemplation (bhāvetabba)
- Criticism on Samatha
- Contemplation of Sending the Sign Forward
- Sending the Sign Two Miles Above
- Don't Become a Spirit Mediator or Magician
- Paying Pilgrimage to Cetiya in Heavens
- Sending Out the Sign
- Dhamma-Cakkhu Attainer — Yogi Daw Khin Thein Who Lost Her Vision
- Except in This Way, We Can't Save Her
- Invaluable Gem
- The First Cetiya in the World
- Except This, No Other Ways to Save Her
- Confidence Rising Up to the Top
- For the Suffering Beings
- Part Three: “All Bright at the Third Stage”
 - Just Know Without Concern
 - “The Beginning, the Middle and the End” In and Out, Up and Down, Front and Back, Left and Right
 - The End of Feet and the End of Head

- Worry of the Ground to be Collapsed
- Left and Right; Front and Back
- Arriving at Super-serpent and Hell Realms (Nāga and Avīci Niraya)
- Even the Buddha Taught With Evidences
- We Are Old Now!
- Exposing of Hell and Heaven
- Should Extend the Sign or Not Extend
- Treasures Covering of Universe
- Passing Through Face and Ear
- Memory of the Twin Miracles of the Buddha
- Cutting of the Whole Body
- The Whole World Is Empty
- Usage of the Practice (Vohāras)
- Extra Prize to Daw Mya Mya Win
- Crying at Practice
- Can't Run Away From Kammic Debts
- Diseases Are Saying Good-bye
- Part Four: "At Fourth, Let It Calm Down"
 - “Let It Be Calmed”
 - Seven Beings With No Breathing
 - Be Careful, Can Fall Down
 - The Four Pabhavana Dhammas
 - Three Appearances of the Body

- Not Easy to Attain Paṭibhāga-Nimitta
- Problem of Some Writings
- The Buddha Praised Ānāpāna
- Text Knowledge From Young; Now Is Direct Experience
- The Five Hindrances and Its Similes
- Representative of In and Out Breaths
- Access Form, Access Mind
- Take One's Own Share
- Not Knowing Is More Difficult Than Not Having
- Ledi Sayadaw's Exhortation
- Ledi Sayadaw and Paṭibhāga Nimitta
- Ledi Sayadaw and Let-pan Sayadaw
- Ledi Sayadaw's 35th Vassa (1900)
- Health Problem
- On the Way to Monywa
- Chapter Four: Yogis' Experiences
 - Experiences in the Third Retreat (by Sayadaw U Nandavamsa)
 - Sixty Days at Rathapāla Dhamma Yeiktha
 - Yogi Daw Yin Yin
 - Rathapāla Dhamma Yeiktha
 - Samatha Meditation
 - Insight Meditation
 - Taste of Dhamma (Dhammarasa) (by Yogi U Kyaw Win)
- Conclusion